NOTE TO ALL EXHIBITORS

Per Barn Hunt Association rules, bitches in season are eligible for entry but will be required to be kept separate from all other dogs and will be run at the end of their classes. There will be a sign indicating the BIS Crating Area. Entry fees for bitches that come into season will be refunded until the closing date of the trial if you wish to withdraw. After the trial closes, entry fees will not be refunded. If you bring a bitch in season, you must inform the trial committee prior to the trial and you are requested to inform all exhibitors at the judges' briefings. Bitches in season must wear pants when running. Please also inform the trial secretary so your running order can be adjusted.

All entries must be accompanied by correct entry fees. Entries must have a Barn Hunt Association registration number. Forms submitted without a registration number will be returned. Any entries received before the opening date will be returned. A returned check does not constitute a valid entry and will incur a $50 penalty. Send entries to the Trial Secretary and make checks payable to North Texas Barnhunters. NOTE: entries sent to the trial site are not valid and will be returned or discarded. See the entry form for the correct address.

B Level Classes Are Here!

B level classes are now available. See the rule book for details, but here are a couple of key things to note when sending in your entry form:

1. You MUST check either A or B (not both) on the entry form.
2. If you enter your dog in B classes you MUST enter him or her in the same level class for the entire event.
3. If you earn a title in an A level class at an event you can move up to the next level A class or laterally to the same level B class. You cannot move down to a lower-level B class at an event.
4. For those competing in the Master class, once you have earned your RATM title you MUST enter trials in B classes. You can enter any level of B class but must stay at that level for the entire event. All RATCH and above titles are earned in B classes.

Team!

Team will be offered after the end of the day on Saturday, time permitting. This is a non-titling, for-exhibition-only class. Team is a fun game involving two dogs hunting in the same ring that is played at the Barn Hunt National. All proceeds from Team will be added to a fund we have set aside to benefit rat and dog charities, or to help Barn Hunt people who find themselves in need due to sudden veterinary or weather issues, or to other worthy causes.

The rules for Team and any additional details will be described at the event and in your confirmation email.
